Administration Relief for Small and Medium-Sized Businesses

Whether you are trying to control costs during a difficult economy or opening additional locations and expanding to new markets, we can help. We partner with a leading HR and benefits company—CoAdvantage—to provide HR, benefits, risk management, and payroll products and services to small and medium-sized businesses.

CoAdvantage will become your administrative co-employer, while you retain full operational control of your business, including hiring and firing. This not only reduces the risk involved with being an employer, it also allows you to offer benefits packages that have been traditionally exclusive to Fortune 500 companies.

CoAdvantage's five-star client-centered service approach drives superior levels of customer satisfaction, resulting in a 95% client retention rate. CoAdvantage also does business in all 50 states, ensuring that multi-state growth organizations have the HR knowledge and resources needed to be successful.

- Attract and retain talented employees with competitive benefits and assistance with recruitment and performance management.
- Access payroll processing delivered with 99.99% accuracy, as well as supporting administrative assistance with such tasks as tax processing, garnishments, time and attendance, and benefits administration.
- Protect your business with government compliance relating to local, state, and federal laws, filings, and reporting, as well as trainings.
- Reduce liability with Workers' Compensation Coverage and claims resolution, liability insurance, safe consultation, and more.
- Proven, nationally ranked Human Resources Management System keeps all employee benefits information in a simple, comprehensive, user-friendly format.
